Dear Mr. Meredith:

I write in the hope that you or your friends might note bne more well-wishers among the thousands across the nation. During your trials may you be sustained by the knowledge that countless people are pulling for you. You are a credit to your country and to your family; your courage will be an example to these across the land striving for a more democratic America. Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Julian and Roz Frederick
